LOCAL UM STUDENTS CHOSEN FOR MONTANA LAW REVIEW STAFF

MISSOULA --

Nine University of Montana students have been chosen for the editorial staff of the Montana Law Review by the publication's 1988-89 board of editors.

The board selected the new members based on the results of a competition testing their writing and legal analysis skills.

The seniors who will be on the staff are Thomas Christie of Billings, John Richardson of West Yellowstone and Barb Tucker of Missoula.

Second-year students who earned positions are K.C. Culum of Helena; Carol Donaldson of Havre; Mike Maurer of Kalispell; and Alan Hall, Susan Ridgeway and Cynthia Smith of Missoula.

The Montana Law Review, which contains law articles with both a practical and scholarly appeal, is published twice a year by the board of editors, UM Law School and Montana State Bar Association.
